

International Legal Notices Made Easy with Infocache

NEW YORK – November 04, 2010: Infocache, a renowned litigation support and data management services provider, offers one-point contact for international legal notices, be it for patents and trademarks, class action lawsuits, bankruptcies, foreclosures or mergers and acquisitions. Infocache has been providing litigation support services to important cases since 1999. Some of its litigation support solutions include document discovery and review, bibliographic coding and database creation. Infocache's ability to provide specialized, quality solutions has earned them several reputed clients, including Fortune 500 companies and AM Law 100 firms.

Infocache's comprehensive, end-to-end litigation support services also include managing foreign language coding and translation, OCR and imaging, rapid discovery, transcription, consultation and records management. Infocache has partnerships with the leading names in the print, television and internet industry that have long-standing relationships across all continents. This also means access to more than 250 publications worldwide. This direct representation of media houses enables the company to get preference for printing and pricing. The savings so obtained are passed on to customers in terms of their competitive pricing.

For getting international legal notices published, customers simply have to contact Infocache with their specific requirements. Based on customer requirements, Infocache creates a customized plan that is accompanied by individual circulation, dates, rates, and other publication demographics applicable in different countries.

Infocache's distinctive proposition is its ability to offer innovative, superior-quality solutions designed to surpass client expectations at cost-effective prices.

Please contact sales@infocachecorp.com.